Subject: Wisconsin Paper Group, Inc. Executive Retirement Announcement

Date: June 30, 2021

Neenah, WI - The Wisconsin Paper Group, Inc. (WPG), along with its subsidiary WPG Shippers Association, is pleased to announce Tom Murray's retirement plans.

Tom Murray will retire as WPG's President on July 1, 2021. In order to ensure leadership continuity and a smooth transition, Tom will temporarily remain as CEO in an advisory role. As outlined in WPG Executive Succession Policy, on an as needed basis, Tom "will be involved in transition activities such as budgeting, communications, preparing the organization, briefing the incoming President, and ensuring there is a successful handoff of the role."

Tom was appointed President & CEO of WPG in 2008. He has been a member of the WPG Board of Directors for nearly 25 years. Tom previously held leadership positions in the transportation and printing industries. He has also been active with many trade, industry and government associations and boards. Tom has been recognized nationally for his accomplishments.

The Wisconsin Paper Group was established in 1934, uniquely formed as a not-for-profit shipper's association. Now in our ninth decade, WPG continues to offer its members reduced transportation cost, improved service, logistics support, value-added services and managing the distribution of products to points across North America.
